

The Wentworth Hotel & Restaurant

Italian Wine Tasting

Wednesday 25th January 2012

Join Matt O'Connor, from Coe Vintners and Angus McNab, from Barwell & Jones wines for an evening of conversation, fine food and interesting wines. Coe Vintners are an independent, family-owned, national supplier established in 1930, whilst Barwell & Jones have trading origins dating back to 1723. Matt and Angus will be showcasing wines from the Veneto and Tuscany regions and providing an interesting compare and contrast on the styles of the wines.

The evening will include:

- A sparkling wine reception in the garden lounge with the first of the evening's wines to try.
- A three course imaginative menu matched with wines.
- An informal explanation of each wine together with interesting background information.
- A 30% discount on bed and breakfast terms for anyone wishing to stay overnight.
